Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Character Diploma an Incentive to Moral Conduct and Good Citizenship in Public School Training The belief is here advanced that there is no more serious defect in our national life than the inadequate moral training given to children. This defect, in large measure, the result of sweeping changes in our social and industrial life, is so fundamental in its nature and so far-reaching in its effects, that it can account for much of the wayward and vicious tendency of youth, the grosser criminality of adults, the disorder and violence of industrial groups, and the selfishness, dishonesty and corruption too often manifest in business and political life. The development of vast city populations with distinct tenement, commercial and factory zones, has operated to deprive parents of opportunity and capacity for the moral supervision of their children. So swift has been the course of these changes and so great are their effects that the Church and the Home upon which we once relied for the moral training of children, have become incompetent to discharge the task....
