

Stevepre: The Unfinished Story of Running Icon Steve Prefontaine (Paperback)

By Golden Krishna

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In 1975, Steve Prefontaine held the American record for every distance over a mile. In May of that same year, the 24 year-old prodigy died in a car accident. More than thirty years later, Pre's gusty racing style and unbelievable talent remains an inspiration to millions of runners around the world. StevePre: The Unfinished Story of Running Icon Steve Prefontaine is a unique and creative account of Steve Prefontaine's life told through the viewpoint of his former coach, Bill Bowerman. Edgy, emotional writing combined with a layout influenced by experimental 1970s graphic design creates a beautiful and moving experience for runners of all ages. The coffee table art book is brief, fact-filled, fast-paced and visually stunning. It's a true collectible for fans of Steve Prefontaine.
