Tulip Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 170 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. This book is a spectacular marriage of psychology and physiology - attitude emotion and biology. You wont view fear or sadness as the only human responses to having a loved one diagnosed with autism or Alzheimers and it will no longer be possible for you to be able to look at someone you care about with neurological challenged and simultaneously think to yourself, theres nothing I can do to meaningfully impact my loved ones condition. The authors combined their professional experiences with Autism with their personal experiences in caring with a parent with Alzheimers. They noted the similarities between the two disabling conditions. Book also includes contributed stories from people with Autism and Alzheimers along with their families stories. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
